

AERC Scholars' Testimonials...

You are the people who are making this world a better place to live in. I realize that according to how life is nowadays, there is no one (who) can educate needy girls but you my dear donors you have devoted to educate us so as to meet our goals and careers."

- Veronica

Being a total orphan without any reliable guardian to fully take care of me, I would not have made it to reach this far without your support..."

- Mildred

"I am so grateful because I have not been sent home for school fees the whole of last year, which has really helped me to improve my grades."

- Florence

"May it not be of your service, saying the truth I could not be in school but somewhere else which is very risky..."

- Margaret
